

That the FCC should NOT implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. Indiana's Telephone Privacy law has improved my time at home tremendously. I used to receive 14 calls a week and now I do not receive any. I am 84 years old and treasure my privacy.